THE LEGEND

This is an ancient story of a time when men and gods lived together. In the land of Peloponnesus, there was a quiet, peaceful village called Eleus. It was the home of the fairest maiden of all Peloponnesus, and a gentle and brave young man called Orpheus. Hellen and Orpheus swore eternal love to each other. But alas, one day, Hellen fell victim to the fangs of a venomous serpent and perished.

Orpheus grieved over her death for three days and nights, upon which he heard the voice of Aphrodite, the Goddess of Love: “I have watched over your love and I know of the deep grief you now feel. But do not give up hope. Hellen has not really passed away. Hades, the god who rules the underworld, has taken away the soul of Hellen so that he can make her his queen. The power of Hades is great, and he has many fearsome henchmen in Tartarus. The only way I can help you save Hellen is to suggest that you look for three nymphs. They will guide you on your way to Tartarus. If your love for Hellen is true, Orpheus, go now and save her.” As Orpheus sets out on his quest to rescue Hellen, his quest begins.
HOW TO USE THE CONTROLLER

Since the "The Battle of Olympus" is a game for one person, only controller 1 is used.

Control Pad
The Control Pad is used to move Orpheus. It is also used to select an item.

- To climb the stairs or go into a cave or entrance.
- To move to the right.
- To go down the stairs or sit down.
- To move to the left.

"A" button
Use the "A" button to make Orpheus jump. How high the hero jumps depends on how long you press the button.

"B" button
Use the "B" button to attack with the weapon currently selected. This button is also used to speak to the people in the town. Approach the person you wish to speak to and press the "B" button. You will then be able to speak to that person. When you see the " mark at the end of the conversation, press either the "A" or "B" button. This will let you listen to a continuation of the conversation. When the entire conversation is over, you can return to the game by pressing either the "A" or "B" button.

"START" button
Use this button to start the game and to show the item selection screen during the game.

"SELECT" button
Press SELECT to use special items (see from Selection, p.10).

Picking up Items
You can pick up an item by crouching over it or jumping on it. Crouching over a nectar enables you to drink it.
STARTING THE GAME

Starting a New Game
Load "The Battle of Olympus" into your Nintendo Entertainment System and turn on the power. It will take a few moments before the title scene appears on the screen. Use the Control Pad to move the ▶ cursor to "START" and press the START button. You can now enter the names of the game's heroes and hes beloved (deheroes). Select the letters by using the Control Pad and press the "A" button to confirm a letter. You can enter up to six letters for each name.

Once you have entered the names, a map of ancient Greece will appear on the screen. The name of the area you will enter will be flashing on and off, it will also appear in the window on the bottom right. You can begin the game by pressing the START button.

Continuing a Game in Progress
Load "The Battle of Olympus" into your Nintendo Entertainment System and turn on the power. Use the Control Pad to move the ▶ cursor to "CONTINUE" and press the START button. You can now enter the words of the god. Enter the words that you wrote down when you finished with the game the last time you played.

Words of the Gods
"The Battle of Olympus" allows you to stop playing in the middle of a game. Later, you can resume where you left off. If you would like to get a password, find a temple of the gods, speak to the god and write down the "word of god".

Game Over
When the physical stamina meter shows zero, it means that the game is over. Move the ▶ cursor to either "CONTINUE" or "RETRY" with the Control Pad, then press the START button to continue or retry.

If you decide to CONTINUE the game, the number of olives collected is halved and you are returned to the starting point in the area.

If you select RETRY, you can begin the game all over again starting from the temple where you last heard the "word of god." Your olives and items remain the same and your physical stamina is restored. Beware if you have not yet heard the "word of god," you will have to start from the beginning of the game.

If you press the START button at any time during the game, the item selection screen will appear. Choose an item using the Control Pad and confirm it by pressing the "A" button.

The selected item now appears in the window at the top right of the screen. Press the START button again to return to the game.
